Explanation for the Deviation / Variation	The shareholders approved the use of amount earmarked for expansion of Chips facility and Construction of related building at Indore plant which was forming part of Funding capital expenditure requirements in the below table, for acquisition of Avadh Snacks Private Limited.
	Explanation for the Deviation / Variation as per explanatory statement of the Notice of the Annual General Meeting of the Company held on 28 th September, 2018:
	The Company has entered into agreement with the three job workers for manufacturing of Potato Chips located at Kolkata, Bengaluru and Ahmedabad post filling of the prospectus. These decentralized manufacturing facilities will help our Company to respond the demand in faster way by optimizing the logistics cost and hence our Company does not require to expand the potato chips manufacturing facility at Indore. Further as the expansion plan of potato chips facility at Indore is being dropped, the related building is also not required to be constructed.
	Gujarat is one of the biggest salty snacks market in India therefore, this is one of the most important markets where our Company would like to build a presence. Avadh Snacks Private Limited has started manufacturing and selling of branded packaged snacks under brand name "Avadh" in 2010 and today has a well-diversified and strong product portfolio for namkeens like bhujia, chevda, fafda, gathiya, etc. and extruded pellets like wheels, cups, pasta, etc. with strong presence in the state of Gujarat and now expanding to Maharashtra and Rajasthan. The product bouquet of our Company and Avadh are complementary and will create a balanced portfolio with a mix of regional and national flavours & variants across categories. The acquisition will also lead to a significant synergy in distribution across Gujarat and neighbouring market.
	Post variation, the amount to be utilised for the objects for which the Prospectus was issued will not be less then seventy five percent of the amount raised.
